

Date	Victim (s)	Media Org	Job description	Description
02.07.2013	Larysa Shchyrakova		Independent TV journalist	Larysa Shchyrakova was briefly detained by police in Rechytsa when she was attending a meeting of businessmen of the local market. She was set free after having checked her documents.
09.07.2013	Alena Stsiapanava		journalist	Alena Stsiapanava was summoned to a police department of the Kastychnitski district of Vitebsk, where she was handed in an administrative report against her. The police accused the journalist of contributing to the foreign mass media Radio Svaboda without accreditation.
25.07.2013	Ihar Iliyash	the newspaper Belorusy / Rynok	journalist	In Minsk police officers detained Ihar Iliyash for more than an hour when he was working at the court hearing over the ex-presidential contender Uladzimir Niakliajew. After the hearing, the journalist was taken to the Maskouski district police department where he was told that he had been brought there for personal identification. I.Iliyash assumed that the law enforcement agencies had confused him with some other person.
26.07.2013	Zakhar Scharbakou	BelaPAN	Correspondent	In Minsk the journalists were detained when they were covering a street action of activists of the youth organization Alternative . They were taken to the Partyzanski district police department. All their photo and video materials were deleted, and all data carriers were checked. The journalists were set free around three hours after the detention.
	Andrei Korsak	BelaPAN	Cameraman
	Siarhei Hudzilin	Nasha Niva	photographer
17.08.2013	Hennadzi Zhuleha		blogger	In Svetlahorsk police seized a laptop from the local blogger and civil activist Hennadzi Zhuleha. Before that the police conducted search in the activist's flat, sanctioned by a prosecutor. On August 6 Zhuleha made a video about the house of the chairman of the Svetlahorsk district executive committee and published the video in the social nets. Then, the chairperson's wife filed a complaint against the blogger, claiming that he spoilt the honor and dignity of her family and the information in the video had libelous character.

20.08.2013	Ales Asiptsou		independent journalist	In Mahilou Ales Asiptsou was briefly detained near the pass-through to Mahiloukhimvalakno (chemical enterprise). The journalist was holding an opinion poll among workers of the factory. A policeman took explanations from the correspondent in one of the service rooms.
24.08.2013	Vasil Siamashka	the news agency BelaPAN	cameraman	In Minsk Vasil Siamashka was detained when he was recording an interview with Tell the Truth! activists on their way out of the police department. The policemen told the journalist that the video had to be deleted because there was a building of a police department in the background. No procedural documents were drawn up.
03.09.2013	Uladzimir Zhyhulou	Vitebskij Courier	journalist	Uladzimir Zhyhulou received a warning from the regional prosecutor's office against work for a mass medium without accreditation in Belarus.
04.09.2013	Aleh Zhalnou		blogger	In Babruysk the police detained the local blogger Aleh Zhalnou and his son while he was making a recording of parking violations on the pavement near the road police department. The blogger said that the cars belonged to the drug control department located at the same address. The detainees were set free three hours later, after giving explanations. According to Mr. Zhalnou, he was threatened to be jailed for disobeying the police demands and for beating a police officer.

05.09.2013	Aliaksandr Barazhenka	Belsat	journalist	Aliaksandr Barazhenka and Aleh Razhkou were forced out from the first night of the Vitaut ballet in the National Academic Opera and Ballet Theatre of Belarus, although they had obtained accreditation in advance. As it turned out they were crossed out from the lists the last minute because the Belsat has not an accreditation of the Foreign Affairs Ministry.
	Aleh Razhkou	Belsat	journalist
14.09.2013	Aleh Hruzdilovich	Radio Svaboda	Correspondent	The journalists were detained when they were going to cover a picket of relatives of Ihar Ptsichkin who died in prison. They were taken to the Central district police department and were held there for three hours. They were made to leave their fingerprints and to delete all photos and videos of that day.
	Iryna Arakhouskaya	Nasha Niva	Journalist
	Hanna Badziaka	Nasha Niva	Journalist
07.10.2013	Barys Khamaida		independent media distributor	Barys Khamaida was detained for a short time in Vitebsk. Officers of Chyhunachny district police department accused him of holding an unsanctioned picket and took him to the department. He was set free in half an hour without having drawn up any procedural documents.
19.10.2013	Ales Piletski and Vital Ruhain	Euroradio	Journalists	The journalists were detained at the railway station in Minsk while performing professional duties. The journalists came to cover how civil and political activists welcomed politician Pavel Seviarynets' arrival to Minsk after having finished three years' sentence he got for participating in December 19, 2010 demonstration. Mass media workers were told they were detained for "suspicious looks"; however, they were held in detention just until the event was over.
	Aliaksandr Vasiukovich		photo correspondent
	Siarhei Hudzilin	Nasha Niva	Correspondent
	Andrei Korsakau Zakhar Scharbakou	BelaPAN	Correspondent

	Barys Haretski		the Belarusian Association of Journalists spokesperson
	Yahor Majorchyk		independent journalist
	Dzianis Nosau		independent journalist
	Nadzeja Hatsak		independent journalist
24.10.2013	Aleh Zhalnou		blogger	Policemen searched the flat of the blogger in Babruysk and seized all the information-carrying media . The ground for the search was a police officer`s complaint contending that in 2012 – 2013 somebody, allegedly Aleh Zhalnou, posted online audio and video materials which harm his honor, dignity and business reputation. The policeman asked to initiate a criminal case.
29.10.2013	Natallia Valakida Siarhei Krauchuk Natallia Benitsevich Dzianis Nosau Aliaksandr Korsakau		journalists	The journalists were detained in Minsk during the Mourning Marathon: people laid flowers and lit candles in Kalvaryja Cemetery. Journalists were detained together with participants of the action. They were taken to the Frunzenski district police department, then searched, questioned and set free in an hour and a half. The policemen explained that they had received a call from the supervisors of the cemetery.
29.10.2013	Aliaksandr Barazhenka Maryja Artsybashava		journalists	Two journalists were briefly detained when holding an opinion poll in Minsk. Aliaksandr Barazhenka and Maryja Artsybashava were questioned and warned that they would have to appear to the prosecutor`s office for a talk after they receive the summons.
6.11.2013	Viachaslau Piashko	Novy Chas	Correspondent	Three journalists were detained near Akrestsina isolation center where people were meeting an Nasta Reznikava		Freelancer	activist Yury Rubtsou who had been arrested for three days for anti-Lukashenko slogan. The policemen made journalists delete all the video recorded near the isolation center.

	Volha Nikalaychyk		film director
19.11.2013	Dzianis Dashkevich	the regional portal vrogacheve.ru	editor	In Rahachou (Hemel region), officers of the Investigative Committee searched the flat of Dzianis Dashkevich. Two computers and a modem were seized. The search was conducted with a warrant, issued for investigation in a criminal case of insulting an official representative in an article published on the website vrogacheve.ru .
26.11.2013	Viachalsau Piashko Natallia Reznikava	Novy Chas newspaper		Two journalists were briefly detained by the traffic police near Hlybokaye town (Vitebsk region) on the pretext that they reminded someone wanted by the police. Viachalsau Piashko and Natallia Reznikava were going to make a video report. In the department the journalists were questioned one by one, their passport data were copied. They were set free approximately half an hour later.
3.12.2013	Ales' Dzianisau		independent journalist	Ales' Dzianisau was officially warned by the Hrodna region prosecutor's office for his contribution to foreign mass media without accreditation . The prosecutor showed a photo of A.Dzianisau standing with a video camera, and then demonstrated a screenshot from a video report about the same event by the Belsat TV channel.
4.12.2013	Ales' Kirkevich			The Hrodna region prosecutor's office issued a warning to Ales' Kirkevich for his contribution to foreign mass media without accreditation.

17.12.2013	Andrei Mialeshka		journalist	The Hrodna region prosecutor's office issued a warning to Andrei Mialeshka for contribution to foreign mass media without accreditation. The journalist was shown a photo where he was standing with a Dictaphone, and, according to the prosecutor, A.Mialeshka had prepared the report for the Radio Racyja .